And it definitely appears that even though they are on a journey, it is still their own special journey. For example, in the recent episode, Robin and Barney had to help Lily with her relationship with a boy she met at work. The boy she had a crush on, indeed. So if we wanted to guess, maybe there is going to be a bit of a "distant endearing love" theme in the finale? Even though we don't know the circumstances, we do know that these type of storylines, or romances, exist and that they usually end in disaster. It is just a part of the characters' lives, and they will no doubt move on, as they have to, so that we don't have to see a series of people stuck in a romantic or even just friendship based relationship. Just last month, Lily and Robin entered into a romantic relationship and they didn't even know it at the time. They certainly didn't know that they were entering into it before. They "just happened" to fall into it. But since they are really close friends and close to each other, it may not last. And the fact that we are still in the Season 7, it may not last as long either. Robin, of course, immediately felt better at the idea that she was in a relationship edd6d56e20
