INTRODUCTION With this game, Swordplay Chronicle: Online World Begins! New Fantasy Action RPG, we bring back the spirit of fantasy RPGs and aim to immerse the world of our fantasy action RPG through the eyes of the characters themselves. Each character has an animation that moves and reacts naturally when they talk, so it is important for the world to be engrossing. Since Swordplay Chronicle is a massively multiplayer online role-playing game, the response of the players, and the quality of the data, are very important. While the style of Swordplay Chronicle is centered on Japanese role-playing games and computer games, we add multiple scenarios and features that play into the distinctive fantasy atmosphere. Since we launched the prototype a year ago, we now have more than ten million registered users in the world and are continuing to expand and improve the game. Every day, we add new content for our players. In addition, Swordplay Chronicle has various activities, events, and other features with a focus on PvP. We would like to deliver more excitement to players through our continued efforts.
